

 Prevent event

The Missing Part: Egg Production

Bruce Dooyema

Egg Farmer, USA & Mozambique

Trustee, International Egg Foundation

GALVmed

01/10/2024
Protecting Livestock - Improving Human Lives

Kigali, 1st of October

Disparity of Per Capita Egg Consumption around the World

Nigeria	80
Zambia	71
Kenya	42
Zimbabwe	35
Rwanda	17
Ethiopia	10

Mexico	392
Argentina	336
Japan	326
Colombia	324
Russia	288
USA	279

Challenges to Successful Egg Production in Sub-Saharan Africa

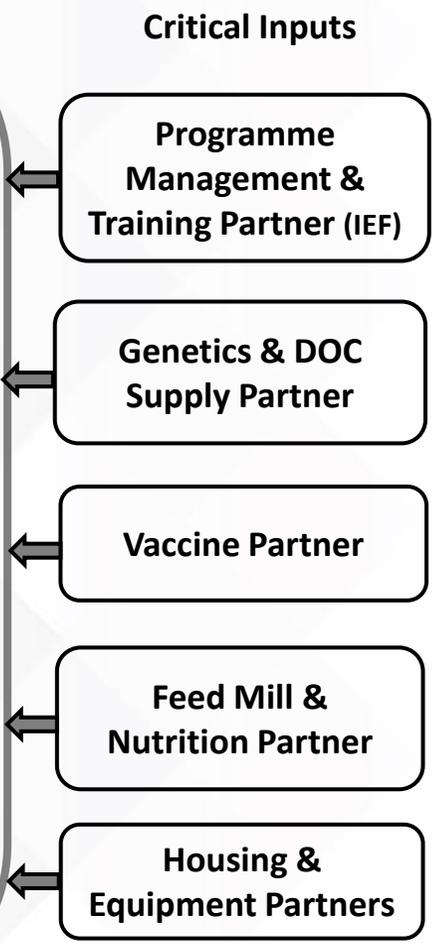

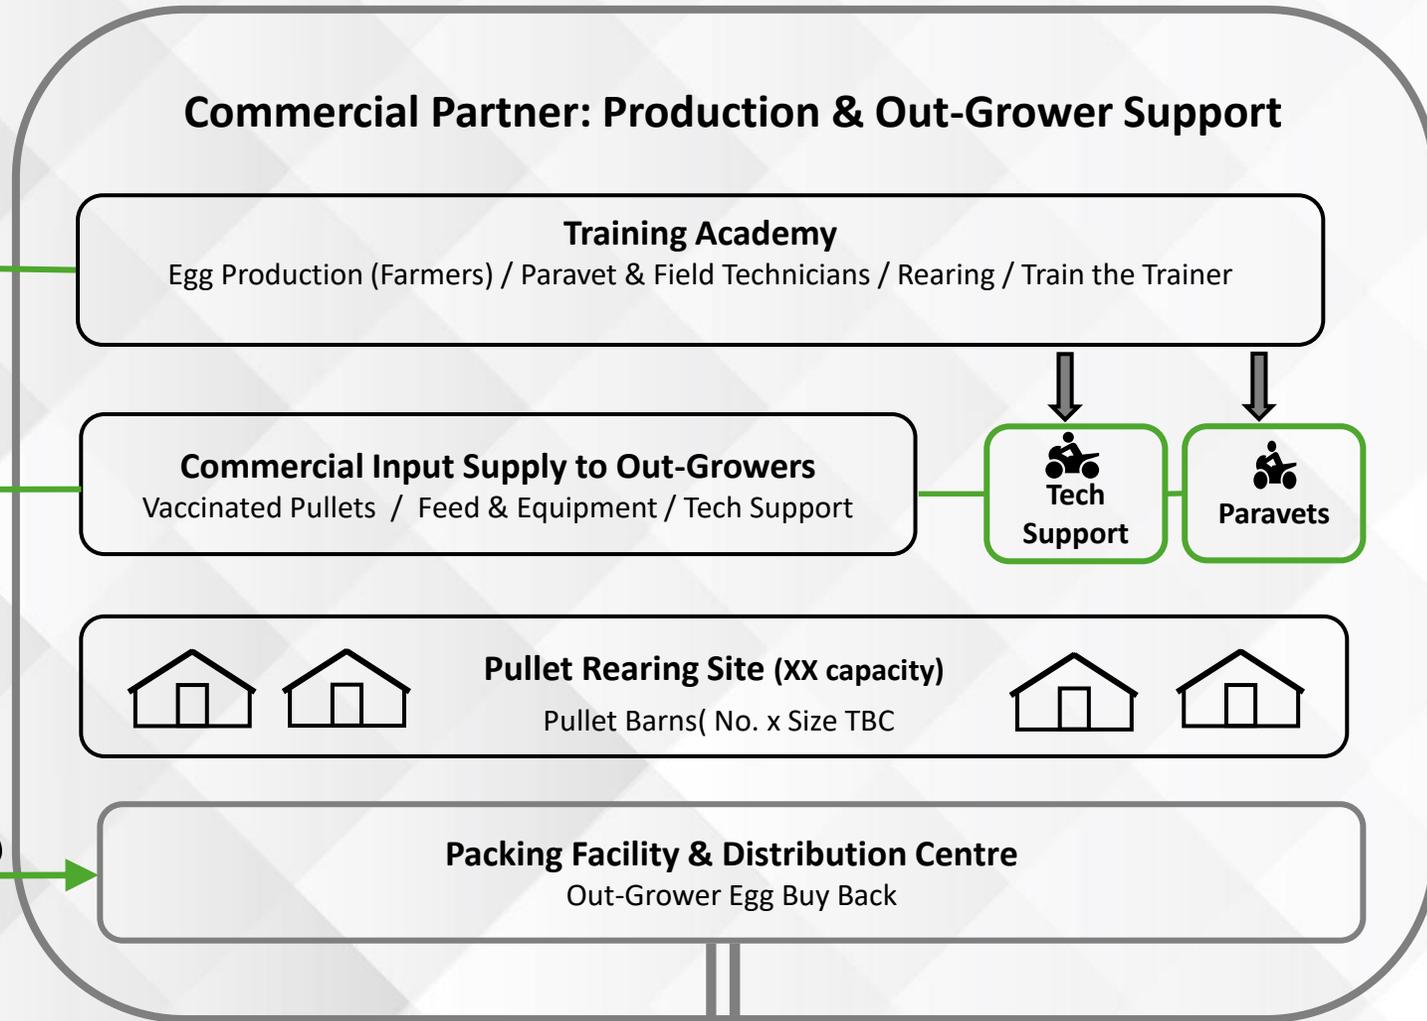

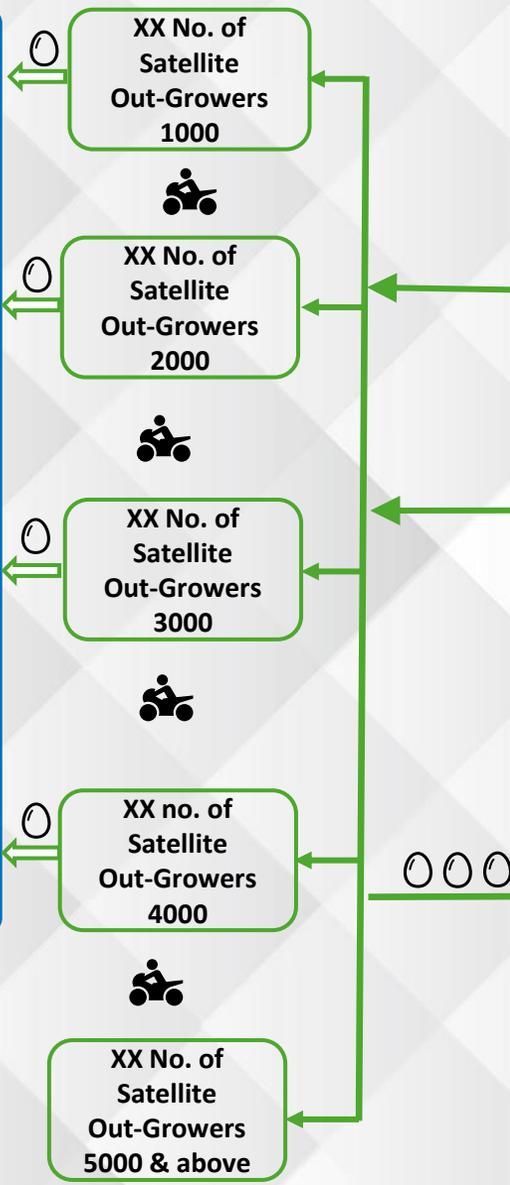

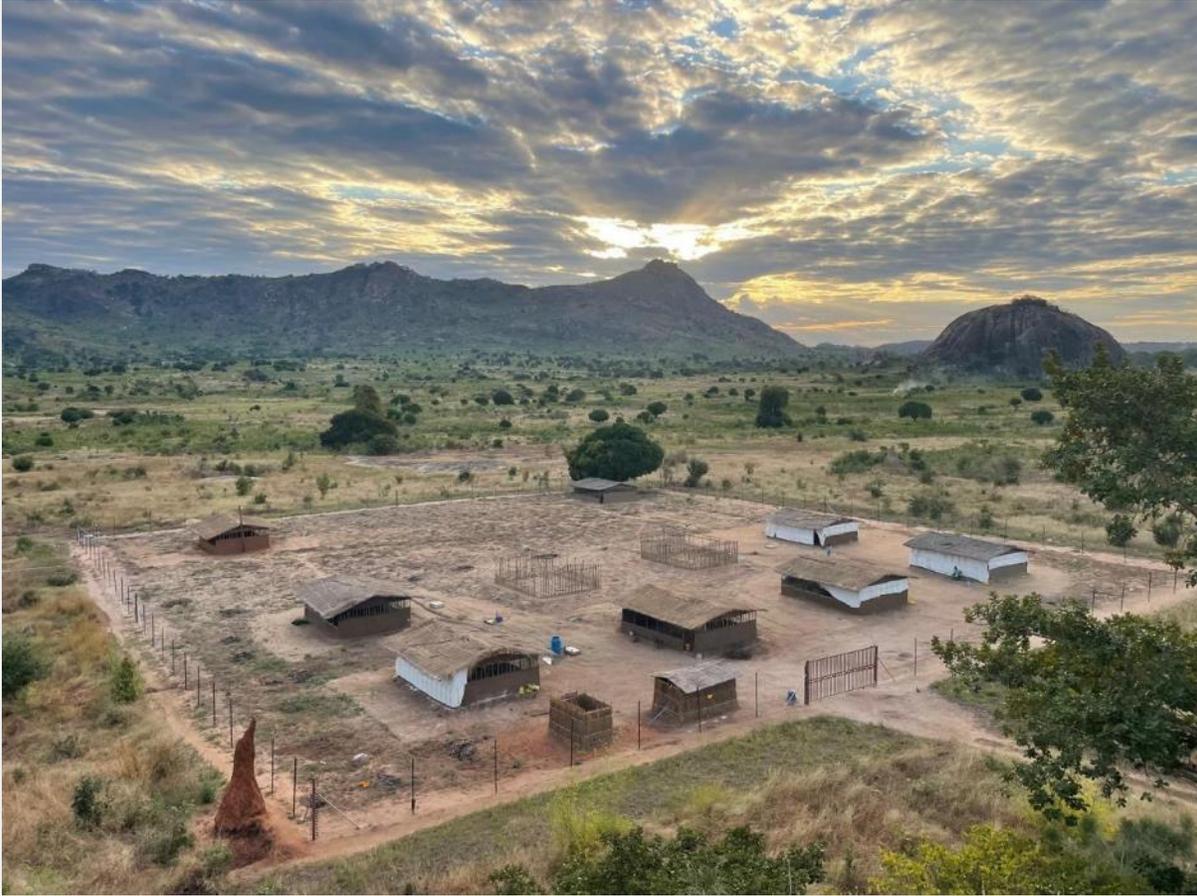

- Lack of Hatcheries
- Hunger
- Long Pullet Rearing Period
- Lack of Egg Production Knowledge and Expertise
- Good Quality Feed Supply

Keys to Successful Egg Production in Sub-Saharan Africa

- Hatcheries
- Availability of Vaccinated Pullets
- Changing the Perception of eggs
- Local Trained Personnel & Progressive Training Opportunities
- Stable Feed Supply
- Suitable Genetics

Local / Informal Markets

Protecting Livestock – Improving Human Lives

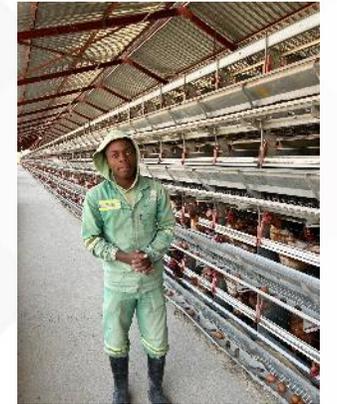

01/10/2024

Prevent event

Conclusion: Successful Egg Production in Sub-Saharan Africa - The Impact

- Increased access and affordability of high-quality nutrition
- Trained and empowered local workforce & egg farmers

Thank you

Email Contact - Bruce Dooyema - bdooyema@versova.com
IEF CEO - Cassy@InternationalEggFoundation.com

WEB - www.InternationalEggFoundation.com

 Prevent event